CHICK AND THE CHRISTMAS TREE

POUSSIN ET L'ARBRE DE NOËL

Board books & Picture books - From 3 years onwards

Shatki Staal
Ophélie Honey

THE BOOK

One December night, Chick sees strange lights emanating from the farm's living room. Curious, he climbs up to the window and makes a dazzling discovery: a tree glittering with a thousand lights! Mama Hen explains that every year, humans decorate a tree to celebrate Christmas. Chick is all excited; he too wants his own Christmas tree...

MARKETABLE FEATURES

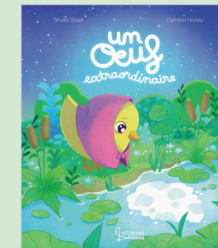

- Christmas: a strong theme.
- An affordable price.
- Little Chick: an irresistible character, destined for more adventures with Larousse Jeunesse!
- A tender, joyful text. Perfect for preschool.

THE AUTHORS

After studying philosophy and training in journalism, Shatki Staal embarked on a career in the print media. Today, she lives next to Paris and devotes herself exclusively to writing for children, through which she can give free rein to her imagination.

After studying Applied Arts and a degree in Design at Bordeaux Montaigne University, Ophélie Honey decided to set up her own business as an illustrator. Since 2019 she has been working with various French and international publishing houses on children's projects.

A STORY TO MIME WITH BABY – PEAK, PEAK, LITTLE HEDGEHOG

UNE HISTOIRE À MIMER AVEC BÉBÉ –
PIC, PIC PETIT HÉRISSON !

Board books & Picture books - From 9 months onwards

Pascale Pavy
Anna Simeone

THE COLLECTION

The very first stories to mime with your baby!

This series brings together toddlers and their parents for a unique moment of interaction and early stimulation, by allowing babies to become active and involved in reading. The story, about young animals in their daily life, can be read in three different ways: by reading it like a classic story, by miming it and showing the different illustrations (the child will associate the gesture and sounds to the pictures and words), and finally by singing it like a nursery rhyme with movements.

MARKETABLE FEATURES

- An interactive story that stimulates senses and encourages the cognitive development of the child.
- A mime-reading experience tried and approved in day-care centres, multimedia libraries, etc.
- With gentle and sweet illustrations for a moment of intimacy with baby!

THE AUTHORS

Pascale Pavy is a psychomotrician, instructor and author of more than 30 books for children, parents, and child-care professionals. It was in the pediatric hospital where she worked that she imagined stories for young children...

Anna Simeone is a Polish illustrator whose work can be seen in Polish, Italian, English and French books. She captures joyful moments and creates sweet, colorful illustrations.

THE COLLECTION

Popotam is a big boy now!

Through various amusing stories, this cute, small, and playful character finds himself in everyday situations and continues his learning journey, just like a 2-to 3-year-old would. Wanting to do things all by himself, exploring, observing and experimenting with his environment, jumping and running fast, or even being overwhelmed by his emotions, the child can see himself in Popotam and learn from his experiences.

MARKETABLE FEATURES

- A new hero in the Larousse children's catalogue.
- Gentle, impish drawings that seduce the youngest ones.
- Short, simple, exuberantly depicted stories, tested and approved in crèches.

THE AUTHORS

Agnès Besson, a former editorial director for children's books, now works directly with young children, and loves to write stories for them.

After studying visual communication at the École Brassart in Tours, Fabien Öckto-Lambert, a father of three, sharpened his brushes and discovered a real passion for children's illustration. His colorful, plant-based work, which often features animals, can be seen in many children's books.

Axelle Vanhoof

THE COLLECTION

Informative and playful books to learn all about animals!

Each title focuses on 10 animals, all from the same habitat. With a full-length and annotated illustration, each animal is presented in a simple and colorful way. Polar bears, lion cubs, squirrels... young children will learn all there is to know about them. As informative as playful, they also offer 4 graphic novel-style panels of extra information to bring the animals to life in their habitat. A beautiful image gathering all the species presented at the end allows the child to point out the different elements learned through the pages.

MARKETABLE FEATURES

- A simple, highly visual introductory page, followed by an «in-action» presentation with a mini comic strip, to discover the main characteristics of various animal.
- The illustrations combine accuracy with humor: the perfect mix to entertain young readers!
- A series to learn about many animals, organized by habitat (farm, polar regions, forest) or by characteristic (babies).

THE AUTHORS

Agnès Besson, a former editorial director for children's books, now works directly with young children, and loves to write stories for them.

Axelle Vanhoof studied illustration at ESA Saint-Luc in Liège, Belgium.

THE PICTURE BOOK OF MY FIRST WORDS

L'IMAGIER DES PREMIERS MOTS

Board books & Picture books - From 5 years onwards

Cécile Zamorano

THE BOOK

This richly illustrated picture book offers a first approach to everyday words, for toddlers aged 1 and over.

Speech therapist Cécile Zamorano has created a selection of over 100 words accompanied by large-format illustrations, divided into categories to enable children to enrich their vocabulary of everyday objects (toys, clothes, fruit and vegetables, the house...). It offers a progressive and original teaching approach: children first discover each word separately, then learn to name them.

At the end of each category, a large illustration brings together in a single image all the objects discovered by the child, enabling them to make the link between the word and its category, and thus fully integrate the vocabulary.

MARKETABLE FEATURES

- An attractive all-cardboard picture book in a practical, durable format.
- An innovative teaching method to help children learn their first vocabulary words.
- A book by Cécile Zamorano, a speech therapist who is also present on social media.

THE AUTHORS

Cécile Zamorano is a speech therapist who began her work by asking children to imagine materials that could help them. With their input, she started creating child-friendly games for speech therapists, later expanding her work to offer new ways of learning for all children. She also collaborates closely with teachers in schools.

What has always guided Cécile Zamorano in her projects is the desire to create high-quality, playful materials that spark children's desire to learn.

Manu Surein

THE COLLECTION

The first encyclopedia for toddlers to learn 1,000 words... and much more!

This series of illustrated encyclopedias introduces children to everyday words, so they can learn while having fun! From the basics (potty, table, boots...) to the more challenging terms (airport, harvester, astronaut...), each book helps children to name everyday elements: flowers, trees, animals, but also jobs, objects, places, space, numbers and colors. With illustrations that are clear enough to easily identify the object, and rich and playful enough for older children! The variety richness of the themes allows children to make it their own and keep coming back to it until they're at least 5/6 years old!

MARKETABLE FEATURES

- A successful collection in France and abroad.
- A large format that can be read by several people and the illustrations seen in detail!
- A book for several age ranges.

UNE JOURNÉE DANS L'ESPACE

Board books & Picture books - From 3 years onwards

Agnès Besson
Maud Reimann

THE COLLECTION

Non-fiction books that read like a short story to help children discover a place, an environment and a time!

These documentaries with a narrative text are made up of double-page spreads, illustrated with large scenes that unfold like a short story. Each has instructions for a game to draw the child into details of the image, using the skills they learn at school at this age: observation, research, mime, counting, colors and more. The final pages suggest little games related to the book's subject.

MARKETABLE FEATURES

- Non-fiction books with an original premise: narrative text that gives children an opportunity to experience the world and explore it in detail.
- Beautiful illustrations as seen in picture books and much less common in non-fiction.
- A new series focusing on important topics for children.

THE AUTHORS

Agnès Besson, a former editorial director for children's books, now works directly with young children, and loves to write stories for them.

THE WIND THAT WAS BLOWING THAT DAY

LE VENT QUI SOUFFLAIT CE JOUR-LÀ

Fiction - From 8 years onwards

Séverine Vidal
Antonin Faure

THE BOOK

Emil is a new kid. Because of the war, he has left his father, his home and his country.

Tonight, he's invited to sleep at Frida's, a friend from his new school. She rushes down the stairs to welcome him. Emil follows Frida and her friends to the cakes, the laughter, the music...

Later, the friends gather in Frida's room.

Each of them reveals the contents of their bag. When it's Emil's turn, he takes some precious objects out of his bag: a scarf with his dad's scent on it, the key to his old house, a bottle of soil from his previous school...

As he reveals all his treasures to his friends, wonderful memories come flooding back...

A subtle, poetic text that delicately tackles the issues of war, uprooting and identity with children.

MARKETABLE FEATURES

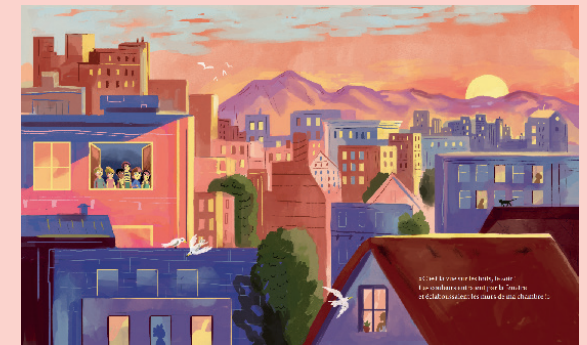

- A sensitive text to address the question of war, uprooting and identity with children (5-8 years old).
- A committed author, well known to booksellers, Séverine Vidal, who has won numerous awards.
- A masterly pictorial setting by Antonin Faure.

THE AUTHORS

Séverine Vidal is a prolific author, published by several French publishing houses.

LOVE BY PAPA BEAR

L'AMOUR SELON PAPOURS

Fiction - From 8 years onwards

Claire Pissarra
Nathalie Ragondet

THE BOOK

A hymn to the love of parents for their children.

*"Tell me, Papa Bear, what is love?
Hmmm, it's going to be a long one, my teddy bear!"*

So begins this tender inventory of all the little demonstrations of love a father shows his son. Love is there, in every little gesture of everyday life.

"Love means spending time with you. Playing in the forest or reading a story..."

"Love is getting up at night when you call me..."

"Love is cooking your favorite meal, but also the ones you like less that are good for your health.

You see, love is all that, and I could go on and on..."

This ode to paternal love shows how simple it is to love, reassuring the little ones and melting the hearts of the grown-ups.

MARKETABLE FEATURES

- A gentle album exploring the parent-child relationship.
- Reassuring, strengthening text by Claire Pissarra, an ode to parental love.
- Tender, poetic illustrations by Nathalie Ragondet.

THE AUTHORS

Claire Pissarra is a publisher who also writes children's books.

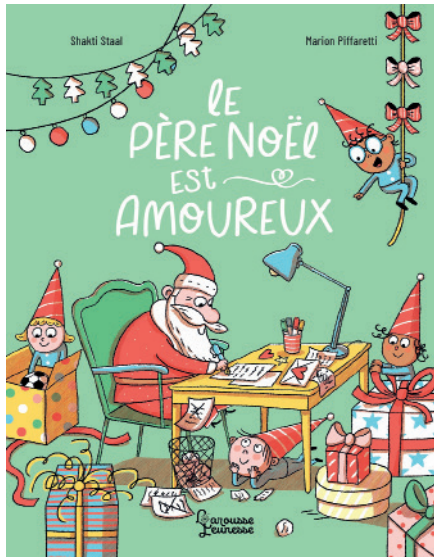

Nathalie Ragondet is a highly successful illustrator for children. She illustrates stories and fairy tales, as well as maps and atlases, for major publishers such as Flammarion's Père Castor in France and Usborne in the UK.

Camille Roy

THE BOOK

A beautiful story of friendship in Halloween colors!

"Today is Halloween. It's my favorite holiday. Why is that?"

For the scary pumpkins, the sharp-toothed monsters, the skeletons on every street corner... and most of all, of course, for collecting candy!"

A story full of whimsy and fun, highlighting the values of friendship, solidarity and sharing. With Halloween as a backdrop.

MARKETABLE FEATURES

- A colorful, musical text by Alice Turquois, set to pictures by Camille Roy.
- Effective, funny and original, this story uses a children's favorite holiday as a pretext to talk about friendship and good values.

THE AUTHORS

Alice Turquois is a strange creature: part Zaza, part unicorn, she only comes out in Spring, hair tousled and never without her tea. Her passion is doodles, which can be found in books, magazines and even games.
